

“In summary, equations like Shannon Entropy or Bayes Rule that relate past and current probabilities with future predictions are essentially worthless for predictions in non-linear entangled systems.”

Why Probability Theory Should be Thrown Under the Bus

January 22, 2018 at 08:27AM