

More Moral ~~~~~~

/In general, given a choice of two courses to follow and all other things being equal, that choice which is more Dynamic, that is, at a higher level of evolution, is more moral./ (p. 183)

13::4 ~~~~~~

/Whenever you kill a human being, you are killing a source of thought too./ (p. 185)

13::6 ~~~~~~

/Source of thought/ is a made up idea, so called static pattern. It's a bogus foundation against capital punishment.

13::12 ~~~~~~

/Jüri yargısı ve Hakim./ Önemsiz davaları dikkate almaz ve önemli davalarda adaletten başka yönlerle bakabilir. Tek kişinin adaleti uygun bir adalet değildir.

13::16 ~~~~~~

İdam cezası kavramı olmalı, ancak kararı tek bir kişinin veya meclisin elinde değil, tüm toplumun elinde olmalı. Eğer can almak için referandum yapmayacaksan, başka ne için yapacaksın?

13::20 ~~~~~~

/Everybody thinks those Victorian moral codes are stupid and evil, or old-fashioned at least, except maybe a religious few religious fundamentalists and ultra-right-wingers and ignorant uneducated people like that./ These remind me of more than a single verse of Qur'an.

13::41 ~~~~~~

/What holds a person together is his patterns of likes and dislikes. [...] what holds together a society together is a pattern of likes and dislikes./
